Important Notes

- Prospective members should review the current Constitution of the Trinity Retirement Association prior to submitting a membership application form (<https://tcdretired.ie/wp-content/uploads/2021/03/TRA-Constitution-revised-10th-September-2020.pdf>)
- Members acknowledge that the Association operates on a self-governing and self-financing basis and holds no representational rights with the University of Dublin, Trinity College.
- For Association-affiliated member events held on campus, members acknowledge and accept that they must at all times adhere to College Health and Safety Policies. General meetings on Campus premises will be covered under the College’s Public Liability Insurance Policy in a manner analogous to that for affiliated extramural activities undertaken on campus.
- For Association-affiliated member events held off campus, members acknowledge and accept that the Association does not hold insurance cover for members participating in such events, nor for travel to/from such events and that the Association and its Officers have absolutely no liability in this regard.
- Members acknowledge that the annual membership fee falls due on 1st January each year. The Annual Membership Fee is €15 per member. (Please note that those retiring in September of any year, payment of the €15 fee will cover them until 31st December the following year).
- Cheques should be made payable to the “Trinity Retirement Association”. Please send your completed application form and cheque/postal order/bank draft to the Treasurer, Trinity Retirement Association, c/o Pensions Office, Trinity Central, 152-160 Pearse Street, Dublin 2. Alternatively you can pay and join online at <http://tcdretired.ie/join-us/>

The Trinity Retirement Association collects and stores specific personal information about its members. This includes: name, postal address, email address, contact phone numbers and details of financial transactions between the Association and its members. The information collected is used for the administration of the Association and to promote events run by the Association on behalf of its members. The data is stored in a database and is only accessed by specific officers of the Executive Committee for conducting the business of the Association. Information is never shared with any other body or organisation. The Association’s mailing list is only used for events that are relevant to the Association. Members names
