The Trinity Retirement Association collects and stores specific personal information about its members. This includes: name, postal address, email address, contact phone numbers and details of financial transactions between the Association and its members. The information collected is used for the administration of the Association and to promote events run by the Association on behalf of its members. The data is stored in a database and is only accessed by specific officers of the Executive Committee for conducting the business of the Association. Information is never shared with any other body or organisation. The Association's mailing list is only used for events that are relevant to the Association. Members names and the year of their membership will be held in perpetuity for historical purposes, unless the member requests that their name be removed. Once a person ceases to be a member of the Association, all other information is deleted.

At some events, photographs are taken that may include people's images and are published on the website. Where this occurs the Executive Committee offers the opportunity for those concerned to ask for their image to be removed and will comply with such request in a timely fashion.
